Seven great New Year's Eve hotel packages for 2021

It's never too early to plan a New Year's getaway – especially after such tumultuous times – so why not book something to look forward to this December? Here are seven brilliant options for travellers to ring in 2022 from afar

Park Hyatt St Kitts Christophe Harbour, St Kitts & Nevis

White Christmases are overrated. This year, opt for a blue one instead and head to this beachfront hotel, metres from St Kitts' crystal-clear waters. On New Year's Eve there will be a carnival-themed dinner at the Great House restaurant, modelled on the beautiful homes in which the island's elite once gathered. Afterwards, bid adieu to 2021 with a spin around the dancefloor (there will be live music throughout the night) before heading outside for a fireworks display. Bag one of the hotel's Ocean View Suites if you can – you'll enjoy stunning vistas of either the Straits of Nevis or Banana Bay. Our other top tip? Arrive on the island a week or so before New Year's Eve. St Kitts & Nevis's National Carnival (or Sugar Mas, as it's referred to by locals) kicks off in early December and finishes on 2 January, making it one of the Caribbean's longest Christmas and New Year celebrations.
