An exciting summer camp for young children and adults recently took place at its long awaited new home – Range Community Center @ Mount Carmel in St Kitts.

Camp Ezekiel hosted approximately 80 participants at the new community center between 15-22 April 2019. Activities included distribution of food hampers to the elderly, a community march against crime, gangs and violence and a gospel concert where children demonstrated their talents in drama with displays of love and kindness. Participants learned new skills in the areas of team building, conflict resolution and disaster management as well as essential life skills and table etiquette.

Although the camp is now in its thirteenth year, it never had a permanent home until Range Developments – an award winning local property developer – funded the construction of a new purpose built community center last year.

Malvie James, Camp Ezekiel Manager said:

“The campers had no place to call their home. We used to camp in community centers, Government School Rooms and the church basement. This was problematic as there wasn’t enough space to accommodate 60-80 children and the facilities were inadequate. However, the newly constructed building donated by Range Developments is fully equipped with a kitchen and bathrooms and we can now house 80-100 children comfortably.”
